.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, order or direction more in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declare the action of the respondents in not announcing the results of the petitioners for the Teachers' Training Certificate Examination conducted in two batches i.e., in January and October, 1997 as arbitrary, illegal, unjust, discriminatory and violative of Fundamental Rights guaranteed to the petitioners under Articles 14, 16 and 21 of the Constitution of India besides being violative of Article 41 of the Constitution of India and issue the consequential direction to the respondents to publish the results of the petitioners for Teacher Training Certificate Examination conducted in two batches, in January and October-1997.

Counsel for Petitioners: MR. N.RAVI PRASAD

Counsel for Respondents: GOVERNMENT PLEADER FOR SCHOOL

EDUCATION

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The petitioners appeared for Teachers' Training Certificate Examination (T.T.C.) conducted in January and October, 1997. But, the results were not declared. In the meanwhile, the Government announced recruitment of teachers by District Selection Committee and after written examination, interviews were being held. As per the rules, the candidates for D.S.C have to produce necessary marks memo and pass certificate on the date of interview. Therefore, they filed the present Writ Petition.

This Court, while admitting the Writ Petition on 23-6-1998, passed interim orders in W.P.M.P.Nos.20506 and 20507 of 1998 as under:

"There will be interim direction to the respondents to allow such of those petitioners who passed the Special Teacher Training Course Examination held in January and October, 1997, for interview provided they have passed the examination recently held by the District Selection Committee for recruitment of teachers along with all other eligible candidates.

The results of the selections as far as the petitioners are concerned, will not be announced, pending further orders and the posts equivalent to the number of selected candidates amongst the petitioners shall also be kept unfilled, pending further orders."

In view of the interim orders, nothing survives in the Writ Petition and therefore, the Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
